DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 1/29/2007 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1 – 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Goodwin et al. (US Patent Number 5,371,870 hereinafter "Goodwin").

4. As per claims 1, 5, 9, and 13, Goodwin teaches a method, apparatus, medium, and system comprising: receiving a plurality of requests, each of the plurality of requests specifying one address in a range of multiple addresses (memory requests by CPU for sequential locations within a range, column 4, lines 3 – 38);

Art Unit: 2182

determining if an address corresponding with one of the plurality of requests is within the range of multiple addresses (it is determined whether the memory references are available in the buffer and then checked from the memory, it is already set that the request is within the range of address, column 4, lines 39 – 67, column 5, lines 1 – 8); and causing a memory to be accessed whenever an address corresponding with a request is within the range of multiple addresses, the memory being identified by and accessible only through a single address, whereby the memory is accessed using any one of the addresses in the range of multiple addresses (memory requests CPU are granted access via a single access as shown in figure 2, column 5, lines 9 – 61).

5. As per claims 2, 6 and 10 Goodwin teaches a method, apparatus, medium, and system further comprising sending the plurality of request in a sequence, wherein the address corresponding with each successive request in the sequence is a successive address in the range of multiple addresses (when subsequent request corresponds to a sequential address deemed a stream, column 4, lines 3 – 38).

6. As per claims 3, 4, 7, 8, 11, 12, 15 and 16 Goodwin teaches a method, apparatus, medium and system wherein the memory access includes reading from the memory and writing to the memory (read and write requests seen in figure 2).

Art Unit: 2182

7. As per claim 14, 17, 18 and 20, Goodwin teaches a method and device wherein the memory is a first-in-first-out memory (FIFO, column 2, lines 47 – 67).

8. As per claim 19, Goodwin teaches an apparatus wherein the range of multiple addresses is predetermined (the range of addresses is set as predetermined by the maximum available addressing limited by the main memory, element 12, figure 1 and validation is expressed in figure 7).

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 – 20 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
